SENTENCE YOUTH IN CAR THEFT HERE LAST AUGUST

Joseph Shields, Phila., Sent to Industrial School at White Hill

CASE IS COMPLICATED

Youth Tells Judge Boyer He Was Paid to Steal Automobiles

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 6—At a hearing in juvenile court yesterday before Judge Calvin S. Boyer, the youth allegedly implicated in stealing the car of Mrs. Paul V. Forster, Radcliffe street, Bristol, last August, was sentenced to the Penna. Industrial School at White Hill, for an indefinite period.

The youth, Joseph Shields, 18, Melrose street, Philadelphia, as a surprise witness several days ago in the trial of Stephen Wyjadka, who was charged with the theft of the car, implicated himself.

Shields, who was 17 years of age at the time of the crime, became 18 years old on March 2nd, but a youth is under jurisdiction of the juvenile court until he becomes 21 years of age.

The youth was questioned at length by Judge Boyer, it was revealed, and asked why he had become engaged in such a business as the theft of automobiles. His reply is said to have been that he wanted to obtain sufficient money to obtain his own car. It is stated that the boy has no criminal record, and that he is an excellent mechanic. He left school when he was 16 years of age.

When Shields, accompanied by another lad, went to Bristol last August to "spot" a car, his eyes fell upon the Forster car, but it is stated that Wyjadka had given instructions to steal a dark car. Shields having been in the employ of Wyjadka and reportedly paid a certain amount for stealing cars, it is stated. Shields and his companion drove back to Philadelphia, he states, and informed Wyjadka of the color of the car. Wyjadka is then said to have returned to Bristol with Shields and the Forster car was taken.

Shields is believed to have made approximately $2,000 in the theft of cars, and his reply to Judge Boyer's questioning as to what he had done with the money is said to have been "that he gave it to Wyjadka to keep for him."

According to a report, Wyjadka is now "missing." He is under $2500 cash bail in the Bucks County court, after having been convicted of the theft of the Forster car, and pending an argument for a new trial in his case. Later he was apprehended in East Orange, N. J., by F.B.I. agents, and accused of the theft of another 25 to 30 automobiles in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. On this charge he posted bail in the sum of $10,000 through a bonding company. Thursday it was stated that when Philadelphia police and detectives went to see Wyjadka they found him missing. His wife is reported to have told them "You will never find him. He has gone for good."

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 6—Clement Shup, of Trumbauersville, was nominated as president of Bucks Co. Police Association at a meeting here this week. Nominated as vice-president is I. D. Derstine, Blooming Glen; secretary, Elmer Shupe, Edison, and treasurer, Herman Westernman, Lower Makefield township.

Agreement Reached To Divide Baingo Estate

Under ruling of Judge Charles Klein, of Orphans' Court, Philadelphia, that Lewis Reining Baingo is deceased, an agreement to divide the estate has been approved.

Under ordinary circumstances, Baingo, who disappeared when a plane crashed near Long Island Sound on July 7th, 1946, could not be declared dead by presumption of law until 1953.

It was stated, however, that such a wait, which would hold up settlement of a $107,000 estate, would have created a hardship on Baingo's two young children. As a result, the children Catherine, 6, and John Lewis, 4, will get a total of $21,000.

The case stems from provisions in the will of Baingo's great aunt, Mrs. Catherine Reining, who died in 1928, leaving $107,000.

She specified that he should receive income from the estate until the age of 35, then inherit the estate outright.

Baingo would have been 35 on November 14th, 1949. Ordinarily, seven years would have to elapse before he could be declared dead.

In that event, Judge Klein said, it would be necessary to find that Baingo presumptively became 35 and heir to the $107,000. That, then, would entitle his widow, Gladys, and the children to his inheritance as heirs-at-law, because he left no will. However rather than wait until 1953, the judge suggested the compromise agreement which he approved.

BUSINESS AREA MINUS ELECTRIC CURRENT

Power Fails for About One Hour Last Night; Affects Banks, A Theatre, Etc.

FIREMEN GIVE AID

A portion of the main business section of Bristol was without electric current for approximately an hour last evening, starting at about 7:30.

Street lights and those in homes and business places failed to function. The current went off a few times for short periods, it is stated, then remained off for about 50 minutes.

At the Farmers National Bank of Bucks County the gas lighting system was immediately put to use, and business continued there practically without interruption. This was supplemented with candles and lanterns.

Officials of the Bristol Trust Company immediately contacted America Hose, Hook & Ladder Co., No. 2, and an emergency lighting system was set up at once by the firemen. When the electric current was again restored, the firemen re-packed their equipment and returned to the fire station, but with failure of current a second time they immediately returned to the banking institution and remained until closing time. The lobby of the Trust Company was filled with patrons at the time, and many more were on the sidewalk outside awaiting their turn. "Most of them waiting very patiently until temporary lighting system was set up," commented a bank official this morning.

Lights were out on a portion of the north side of Mill street, between Wood street and the highway, also in the 5 & 10 cent store across Wood street. On the south side of Mill street lights were out between Cedar and Radcliffe streets. The Grand Theatre was affected, likewise, the first show not being over until 10 o'clock, and the second one at midnight.

Officials of Philadelphia Electric Company could not be contacted this morning for information on cause of the difficulty, but it was unofficially stated that two transformers had burned out. A similar condition existed several months ago in the same area.

TULLYTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Lineberry, Miss Carole Lineberry, and Lane Conn. of Bristol Terrace, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Barwis.

THE CONDON CASE

Watch the Condon case! That ought to be easy—it's a first-class cloak-and-dagger spy story; as good as the movies.

But it's more than that. It is the best test which has come along of several profound questions. Are we going to break up the Russian spy ring? Are we going to protect the secret of the atom-bomb? Do the American people have enough interest in their own welfare to be able, as the expression goes, to "govern themselves?" Is Congress so decadent that it can be "pushed around" by the executive branch of government?

Even more important is this question: Have propaganda and pressure become so much more effective in dealing with the American people than plain facts, that the men and women of this country won't exert themselves in the least to get at the truth—even when it is made freely available to them?

There is the most striking feature about the Condon case. The whole evidence against this scientist, who heads one of the most vital research units of all those involved in national defense, has been ably summarized in a short public document. It is simple, direct, easy to read—the average person could go through it in ten or fifteen minutes.

How many persons have read it? Very few. Newspapers, in the main, merely quoted from it. They have printed columns pro-and-con about the charges, but only a handful have set forth the charges themselves. The circulation of the Congressional Record, which printed the document in full, is very limited. That's only a drop in the bucket.

Yet how can the American people judge this matter, which involves both their national safety and their Constitutional government, unless they are going to know exactly why a group of Congressmen said that Dr. Condon is "one of the weakest links in our atomic security"—to know that; and also what the Truman Administration and others presumably sympathetic to Russia are doing to keep Dr. Condon in his dangerous office?

Let's make one thing clear.

Dr. Condon hasn't been proven guilty of anything. Probably he couldn't be. The evidence against him is entirely circumstantial.

YET THE FACT IS THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN OUGHT TO HAVE BOUNCED HIM OUT OF HIS ATOMIC-BOMB JOB THE MOMENT ANY OF THIS EVIDENCE CAME TO HIS ATTENTION.

DR. CONDON NEVER SHOULD HAVE BEEN PUT IN THIS POSITION OF HIGH TRUST IN THE FIRST PLACE—WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN, BY ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT IN THE WORLD TODAY THAT IS TRYING TO PROTECT ITS OWN PEOPLE. WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED FOR IT AT ANY OTHER STAGE OF AMERICAN HISTORY?

Why is this so? For a very simple reason.

DR. CONDON BELIEVES THAT RUSSIAN SCIENTISTS "MUST BE WELCOMED TO OUR LABORATORIES"—THAT IS, IN PLAIN ENGLISH, THAT RUSSIA SHOULD BE GIVEN THE SECRET OF THE ATOMIC BOMB.

How do we know? He said so. Said so in an address on March 5, 1946—which is well after the Communists had shown their hand in their spy work throughout the world, and were obviously seeking to bore into the government of the United States.

February Showed No Quarantinable Diseases

Reports filed with the Bristol Borough Board of Health for the month of February show there were no quarantinable diseases reported by physicians in Bristol during the month of February.

It was stated at the monthly meeting that the rumor generally circulated that there was a "polio" epidemic in Bristol is entirely unfounded. Not a single case of the disease has been reported here for three years.

There were five cases of ringworm of the scalp reported; and the health officer requests proprietors of barber shops and operators of beauty shops to be on guard against such cases. It is suggested that operators of such shops advise their clients, if found to be suffering with ringworm of the scalp, to contact their physicians.

There were two cases of chicken pox and three of mumps reported during February.

The health officer, William A. Groff, is starting a campaign against animals frequenting public eating places. Animals in such places is strictly contrary to law, and the health board intends to enforce this section. A campaign is also on to prevent use of soiled towels for wiping dishes. The health officer will contact proprietors of public eating and drinking places, and issue final warnings against the violations of these laws.

The annual inspection of the sources of supply for the local dairies will be made this month previous to the issuance of licenses to milk distributors here. Proprietors of dairies distributing milk in Bristol have been advised that their licenses expire March 31st. They have been asked to file applications for new licenses and to furnish a complete list of their sources of supply so that they can be checked.

Richard ("Dick") Contino Has Been Held Program Winner 13 Weeks

LIBERAL IN NUMBERS

A nimble-fingered musician held a capacity crowd spellbound for 45 minutes yesterday afternoon in Bristol high school "gym" with a magnificent exhibition on the accordion.

He is tall, good looking Richard ("Dick") Contino, 18, of Fresno, Calif. "Dick" has been a winner for 13 straight weeks on the Horace Heidt program heard weekly on Sundays. Next week he will compete in the quarter finals for $750. So far on the air he has amassed the sum of $3250 in prize money.

He has the characteristics of the Sinatra personality—shy, unassuming, easy-going, and he receives the same kind of sighs from the female audience when his dexterous fingers tickle the keys that Sinatra does when he sings.

He didn't have much to say, except that he was happy to be a guest of the high school and would like to return some day if they "would let him." At this remark the audience burst out in a terrific round of applause.

Contino opened the program with "Lover" a song that he played in New York last week; this was followed by "Lady of Spain," "Peg

SENTENCE YOUTH IN CAR THEFT HERE LAST AUGUST

Joseph Shields, Phila., Sent to Industrial School at White Hill

CASE IS COMPLICATED

Youth Tells Judge Boyer He Was Paid to Steal Automobiles

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 6.—At a hearing in juvenile court yesterday before Judge Calvin S. Boyer, the youth allegedly implicated in stealing the car of Mrs. Paul V. Forster, hadcliffe street, Bristol, last August, was sentenced to the Penna. Industrial School at White Hill, for an indefinite period.

The youth, Joseph Shields, 18, Melrose street, Philadelphia, as a surprise witness several days ago in the trial of Stephen Wyjadka, who was charged with the theft of the car, implicated himself.

Shields, who was 17 years of age at the time of the crime, became 18 years old on March 2nd, but a youth is under jurisdiction of the juvenile court until he becomes 21 years of age.

The youth was questioned at length by Judge Boyer, it was revealed, and asked why he had become engaged in such a business as the theft of automobiles. His reply is said to have been that he wanted to obtain sufficient money to obtain his own car. It is stated that the boy has no criminal record, and that he is an excellent mechanic. He left school when he was 16 years of age.

When Shields, accompanied by another lad, went to Bristol last August to "spot" a car, his eyes fell upon the Forster car, but it is stated that Wyjadka had given instructions to steal a dark car. Shields having been in the employ of Wyjadka and reportedly paid a certain amount for stealing cars, it is stated. Shields and his companion drove back to Philadelphia, he states, and informed Wyjadka of the color of the car. Wyjadka is then said to have returned to Bristol with Shields and the Forster car was taken.

Shields is believed to have made approximately $2,000 in the theft of cars, and his reply to Judge Boyer's questioning as to what he had done with the money is said to have been that he gave it to Wyjadka to keep for him.

According to a report, Wyjadka is now "missing." He is under $2500 cash bail in the Bucks County court after having been convicted of the theft of the Forster car, and pending an argument for a new trial in his case. Later he was apprehended in East Orange, N. J., by F.B.I. agents, and accused of the theft of another 25 to 30 automobiles in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. On this charge he posted bail in the sum of $10,000 through a bonding company. Thursday it was stated that when Philadelphia police and detectives went to see Wyjadka they found him missing. His wife is reported to have told them "You will never find him. He has gone for good."

Agreement Reached To Divide Baingo Estate

Under ruling of Judge Charles Klein, of Orphans' Court, Philadelphia, that Lewis Reining Baingo is deceased, an agreement to divide the estate has been approved.

Under ordinary circumstances, Baingo, who disappeared when a plane crashed near Long Island Sound on July 7th, 1946, could not be declared dead by presumption of law until 1953.

It was stated, however, that such a wait, which would hold up settlement of a $107,000 estate, would have created a hardship on Baingo's two young children. As a result, the children Catherine, 6, and John Lewis, 4, will get a total of $21,000.

The case stems from provisions in the will of Baingo's great aunt, Mrs. Catherine Reining, who died in 1928, leaving $107,000.

She specified that he should receive income from the estate until the age of 35, then inherit the estate outright.

Baingo would have been 35 on November 14th, 1949. Ordinarily, seven years would have to elapse before he could be declared dead.

In that event, Judge Klein said, it would be necessary to find that Baingo presumptively became 35 and heir to the $107,000. That, then, would entitle his widow, Gladys, and the children to his inheritance as heirs-at-law, because he left no will. However rather than wait until 1953, the judge suggested the compromise agreement which he approved.

A passing motorist removed the two to Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, for treatment.

Penna. State Police of Langhorne barracks investigated the accident.

BUSINESS AREA MINUS ELECTRIC CURRENT

Power Fails For About One Hour Last Night; Affects Banks, A Theatre, Etc.

A portion of the main business section of Bristol was without electric current for approximately an hour last evening, starting at about 7:30.

Street lights and those in homes and business places failed to function. The current went off a few times for short periods, it is stated, then remained off for about 50 minutes.

At the Farmers National Bank of Bucks County the gas lighting system was immediately put to use, and business continued there practically without interruption. This was supplemented with candles and lanterns.

Officials of the Bristol Trust Company immediately contacted America Hose, Hook & Ladder Co., No. 2, and an emergency lighting system was set up at once by the firemen. When the electric current was again restored, the firemen re-packed their equipment and returned to the fire station, but with failure of current a second time they immediately returned to the banking institution and remained until closing time. The lobby of the Trust Company was filled with patrons at the time, and many more were on the sidewalk outside awaiting their turn. "Most of them waited very patiently until temporary lighting system was set up," commented a bank official this morning.

Lights were out on a portion of the north side of Mill street, between Wood street and the highway, also in the 5 & 10 cent store across Wood street. On the south side of Mill street lights were out between Cedar and Radcliffe streets. The Grand Theatre was affected, likewise, the first show not being over until 10 o'clock, and the second one at midnight.

Officials of Philadelphia Electric Company could not be contacted this morning for information on cause of the difficulty, but it was unofficially stated that two transformers had burned out. A similar condition existed several months ago in the same area.

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

A petition being filed by Harold Foster, Philadelphia, for counsel on the grounds he had no funds, resulted in naming of Donald B. Smith, Perkasie, and C. William Freed, Jr., Quakertown, to represent him.

Foster is one of four youths awaiting trial for the murder of William Kelly, 38, of Trevoce, outside Feasterville Inn, following a hold-up December 24th.

Abram C. Moyer, 91, retired Hilltown township farmer and one of the oldest residents of Perkasie borough, died Tuesday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey D. Hunsicker, Perkasie. He was ill but a short time, and bedfast for one week.

Mr. Moyer was a native of Hilltown township, a son of the late Christian and Polly Clymer Moyer. He lived in the Blooming Glen area for 40 years, in Blooming Glen proper for 20 years, and in Perkasie since 1938. He resided with his son-in-law and daughter for the past few years.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

After United States acceptance of several Russian amendments to the original resolution, the United Nations Security Council agreed yesterday to request that the five major powers confer on the Palestine situation. The agreement calls for submission of recommendations by March 15 "with a view of implementing the resolution of the General Assembly." Britain, Syria and Argentina abstained from voting.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, Zionist spokesman, warned that if the partition plan failed the Jewish community in Palestine would be threatened with annihilation and in such a crisis the Jews would have to act to safeguard their lives and property.

In Palestine, meanwhile, there were new outbreaks of violence. In a night attack on Arab forces north of Tel Aviv, Haganah forces killed 15 of a band that had been attacking Jewish settlements.

The Greek Government reported the seizure of Kakavia, a point near the Albanian border that had been used as a supply base by the guerrillas.

Catholic news sources in Rome relayed a report that the Pope had refused to grant a dispensation for the marriage of former King Michael of Rumania and Princess Anne.

THE CONDON CASE

Watch the Condon case! That ought to be easy—it's a first-class cloak-and-dagger spy story; as good as the movies.

But it's more than that. It is the best test which has come along of several profound questions. Are we going to break up the Russian spy ring? Are we going to protect the secret of the atom-bomb? Do the American people have enough interest in their own welfare to be able to read what is "pushed around" by the executive branch of government? Even more important is this question: Have propaganda and pressure become so much more effective in dealing with the American people than plain facts, that the men and women of this country won't exert themselves in the least to get at the truth—even when it is made freely available to them?

There is the most striking feature about the Condon case. The whole evidence against this scientist, who heads one of the most vital research units of all those involved in national defense, has been ably summarized in a short public document. It is simple, direct, easy to read—the average person could go through it in ten or fifteen minutes. How many persons have read it? Very few. Newspapers, in the main, merely quoted from it. They have printed columns pro-and-con about the charges, but only a handful have set forth the charges themselves. The circulation of the Congressional Record, which printed the document in full, is very limited. That's only a drop in the bucket.

Yet how can the American people judge this matter, which involves both their national safety and their Constitutional government, unless they are going to know exactly why a group of Congressmen said that Dr. Condon is "one of the weakest links in our atomic security"—to know that; and also what the Truman Administration and others presumably sympathetic to Russia are doing to keep Dr. Condon in his dangerous office?

Let's make one thing clear.

Dr. Condon hasn't been proven guilty of anything. Probably he couldn't be. The evidence against him is entirely circumstantial.

YET THE FACT IS THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN OUGHT TO HAVE BOUNCED HIM OUT OF HIS ATOMIC-BOMB JOB THE MOMENT ANY OF THIS EVIDENCE CAME TO HIS ATTENTION.

DR. CONDON NEVER SHOULD HAVE BEEN PUT IN THIS POSITION OF HIGH TRUST IN THE FIRST PLACE—WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN, BY ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT IN THE WORLD TODAY THAT IS TRYING TO PROTECT ITS OWN PEOPLE, WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED FOR IT AT ANY OTHER STAGE OF AMERICAN HISTORY!

Why is this so? For a very simple reason.

DR. CONDON BELIEVES THAT RUSSIAN SCIENTISTS "MUST BE WELCOMED TO OUR LABORATORIES"—THAT IS, IN PLAIN ENGLISH, THAT RUSSIA SHOULD BE GIVEN THE SECRET OF THE ATOMIC BOMB.

How do we know? He said so. Said so in an address on March 5, 1946—which is well after the Communists had shown their hand in their spy work throughout the world, and were obviously seeking to bore into the government of the United States.

February Showed No Quarantinable Diseases

Reports filed with the Bristol Borough Board of Health for the month of February show there were no quarantinable diseases reported by physicians in Bristol during the month of February.

It was stated at the monthly meeting that the rumor generally circulated that there was a "polio" epidemic in Bristol is entirely unfounded. Not a single case of the disease has been reported here for three years.

There were five cases of ringworm of the scalp reported; and the health officer requests proprietors of barber shops and operators of beauty shops be on guard against such cases. It is suggested that operators of such shops advise their clients, if found to be suffering with ring-worm of the scalp, to contact their physicians.

There were two cases of chicken pox and three of mumps reported during February.

The health officer, William A. Groff, is starting a campaign against animals frequenting public eating places. Animals in such places is strictly contrary to law, and the health board intends to enforce this section. A campaign is also on to prevent use of soiled towels for wiping dishes. The health officer will contact proprietors of public eating and drinking places, and issue final warnings against the violations of these laws.

The annual inspection of the sources of supply for the local dairies will be made this month previous to the issuance of licenses to milk distributors here. Proprietors of dairies distributing milk in Bristol have been advised that their licenses expire March 31st. They have been asked to file applications for new licenses and to furnish a complete list of their sources of supply so that they can be checked.

Collars Two Boys; Said To Have Shot At Train

JOHNSVILLE, Mar. 6.—A conductor, grabbing the "stop" cord and leaping to the ground as the train came to a sudden halt, claimed two boys whom he claimed were shooting at the car windows here.

Russell Landis, of New Hope, is the captor. He spied the two boys shooting at the train. A window was broken but no one injured.

When Landis caught up with the lads he took the .22 calibre rifle from them.

In addition, he obtained the names of the boys and gave them to a Reading Railway policeman. Mr. Landis telephoned the news of catching the boys to the Philadelphia office of the Reading Company from the Hatboro station.

A telephone call to the police department of the Reading Company revealed that the railway police are conducting an investigation but that no charges have been lodged as yet against the boys pending more complete details.

"It may take several days before the case is cleared up," said a railroad official.

ACCORDIONIST GIVES A FINE EXHIBITION

Richard ("Dick") Contino Has Been Held Program Winner 13 Weeks

LIBERAL IN NUMBERS

A nimble-fingered musician held a capacity crowd spellbound for 45 minutes yesterday afternoon in Bristol high school "gym" with a magnificent exhibition on the accordion.

He is tall, good looking Richard ("Dick") Contino, 18, of Fresno, Calif. "Dick" Contino has been a winner for 13 straight weeks on the Horace Heidt program heard weekly on Sundays. Next week he will compete in the quarter finals for $750. So far on the air he has amassed the sum of $3250 in prize money.

Contino, who is residing temporarily with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. N. DiGregorio, at 925 Mansion street, gives the impression of a large-sized Frank Sinatra. He has the characteristics of the Sinatra personality—shy, unassuming, easy-going, and he receives the same kind of sighs from the female audience when his dexterous fingers tickle the keys that Sinatra does when he sings.

He didn't have much to say, except that he was happy to be a guest of the high school and would like to return some day if they "would let him." At this remark the audience burst out in a terrific round of applause.

Contino opened the program with "Lover," a song that he played in New York last week; this was followed by "Lady of Spain," "Peg" Continued on Page Four

NERELY DEAD-RECKONING!

Montanez, ship carpenter, has fallen overboard. It also seems certain he did so a good while before being missed at boatdrill muster. The liner Santa Clara, which has been steaming northward through the Caribbean, now turns majestically around.

The sea is warm and calm, and Montanez can swim. But even under ideal conditions of sea and daylight, Captain Fördan sees about "one chance in a thousand" to pick him up about 25 miles away.

The ship's track has been drawn from dead reckoning on the chart in the chartroom. Time, ship's speed, known currents, and other data have been evaluated. A probable position for Montanez is also figured by dead reckoning.
(The "dead" comes from "deduced"—abbreviated "ded." in olden times.)

It is late afternoon and a race with the sun as well as death.
The helmsman stares hard at the compass in the lighted binnacle as he concentrates on steering a straight course. Deep in the engine room there is an alert watch at the tachometer—the big propellers must keep turning at the precise R. P. M. the bridge calls for.

There has been much careful figuring, and the answer must come out right if the chance of picking up Montanez is to be even one in a thousand. It's a big sea, the Caribbean.

Finally all available eyes begin scanning the surface. Will it be a rendezvous with death, as expected, or not? A passenger notices a sea bird circling about a small dark object, which waves. It is a man. It is Montanez.

The dead reckoning has been perfection. So has the teamwork of bridge and engine room as well.
The term is a bird of curiosity.
Yet who shall say the miracle can be explained as easily as that?

GOOD MORNING

Because he deplored the general lack of human kindness, a New York man started on a recent morning to spread sweetness and light in his daily contacts. His first effort was in a department store. "Good morning," he said to the woman who came to wait on him. "And how are you this fine morning?" Instead of the pleasant smile he expected to receive in return, she said: "A hell of a lot of difference it makes to you how I am."

This may have been an unusual instance, but it illustrates the attitude of the American people toward each other. There still are signs of friendliness, but more often they are resented than welcomed. The person who makes a display of it is usually suspected of being drunk or a bit bawdy.
The modern attitude is one of minding one's own business. Except in rare instances, he who deviates from it is reluffed for his pains.

When an Oklahoma man found two wolves at the door, he killed both of them. Those Sooners are fairly forthright.

The Condon Case

Moreover, Dr. Condon has been on the Executive Committee of a Communist-sympathizing organization known as the American-Soviet Science Society, which is affiliated with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Inc.

THIS ORGANIZATION WAS RECENTLY CITED BY U. S. AT-TORNEY GENERAL CLARK AS "SUBVERSIVE."
Now, Dr. Condon, as Director of the National Bureau of Standards, which is the unit of government that started the work on the atomic bomb, and which has been in touch with it throughout, is in a position to learn all the "secrets"—and he is scientist enough to know what they mean, too.

He has said he thinks Russia should be given our science-laboratory findings; and he has joined pro-Russian scientific organizations.

WHAT MORE IS NEEDED?
The secret of the atomic bomb is this nation's one defense in a troubled, largely antagonistic world. In other hands, it might cripple or destroy us overnight.

Even if Dr. Condon is entirely innocent of wrong-doing—and that could be even harder to prove than his guilt of some specific misdeed—ISN'T THE PROTECTION OF THIS NATION MORE IMPORTANT THAN ANY OTHER CONSIDERATION, SUCH AS THE "RIGHT" OF AN INDIV-IDUAL TO HOLD A JOB UNTIL HE IS CAUGHT RED-HANDED?

Isn't it a fact that the risks involved are so inconceivably great that a man who is to hold so vital a position should be, like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion?"

Isn't it a fact that the honest and noble act of a sincere man so situated as Dr. Condon would be to withdraw voluntarily from so high a trust the moment the slightest question rose of his trustworthiness?

Isn't it a fact, too, now that the question has been raised, the first step of a fair and competent Administration should be to make all its evidence available to those investigating such a matter? Yet Dr. Condon's superior in the government, Secretary of Commerce Harriman, has announced he will defy Congress and keep hidden the evidence he possesses.

This affair goes deep. Close reading of the Un-American Activities Committee report indicates that, long before Congress brought the matter into the open, the F. B. I., the U. S. Army and the Atomic Energy Commission itself had been deeply mistrustful of Dr. Condon.

As a matter of fact, long ago Dr. Condon's name was included on the secret list of those who were not "cleared" for work on the atomic bomb. In plain English, this means that he had been investigated to see whether it was proper to trust him to keep the secret from Russia—and he hasn't passed!

Nevertheless, when he found that the Atomic Energy Commission wasn't going to let him in on their secrets, he took steps of his own to stay on the inside. He reorganized his Bureau of Standards to set up an Atomic Physics Division of which he appointed himself head.

In May last year J. Edgar Hoover, of the F. B. I., sent a letter to Secretary Harriman warning him that Dr. Condon was consorting with persons believed to be Russian spies.

For months Dr. Condon's name continued on the "restricted" list—those not "cleared" for knowing the inner history of atomic bomb research. But recently, presumably when it became known that Congress was interested, Secretary Harriman's own investigating body suddenly gave Dr. Condon a clean bill of health—a sort of immunity bath; a whitewashing, in plain English.

Now Secretary Harriman is refusing to tell Congress what basis his Department had for a decision so out of line with the opinion of other investigators.

The Army tipped off its own opinion when it cancelled passports of Dr. Condon and his wife (of Czech descent) which would have taken them to Europe to confer with Russian representatives.

While the atomic bomb is the most spectacular secret which might be turned over to Russian spies, by confidential employees or officials in the Bureau of Standards, it is not the only, or even necessarily the most important, such military secret.

The Bureau is the most important agency of the U. S. Government in research in virtually all military fields. It is, for example, now engaged in trying to work out the guiding of missiles by radio, selfdetonating explosives automatically set off by radar, instrument-landing of airplanes, bomb-sights, range finders, and a host of other radio-radar devices so secret that even their names are "restricted."

As the report observes, for obvious reasons, Dr. Condon's Bureau "has become the target of espionage agents of numerous foreign powers."

Are those secrets worth protecting?

Is it worth while to be certain they are guarded by someone who feels they are the property, as well as the protection, of the American people? Or are we going to "take a chance" that the suspicion against Dr. Condon is unfounded?

Or is this treasure-chest of information of a kind which, in unfriendly hands, might slaughter and enslave the whole American people to be guarded by a man who has said Russia is entitled to it, and who is alleged to have consorted for months with the Russian spies sent here to ferret it out?

AND ARE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE GOING TO BE CONTENT TO SEE THEIR ONE REAL WATCH-DOG IN WASHINGTON—CONGRESS—
SNEAKED AND THAWED IN ITS DRIVE TO GET AT THE BOTTOM OF THE MATTER?

Inaugurate Speech Clinic At The Sorosis Meetings

LANGHORNE, Mar. 6.—Although attendance was small due to weather conditions, members of Langhorne Sorosis inaugurated a speech discussion clinic at Thursday's session in the local library.

Mrs. Horace Townsend is serving as leader of this clinic, which will continue for several meetings. Yesterday about 12 members participated. The leader had assigned subjects for members to present, then constructive criticism was forthcoming as part of the training course for the group.

Mrs. Henry Ridge was the presiding officer during business. Announcement was made of the March 18th meeting, when the general subject will be "Youth Conservation." A forum on "Education" is scheduled for the evening of March 24th in St. James' parish house, this being open to the public; and on April 1st a guest speaker will present a cancer prevention program.

Eddington Presbyterian Church
Guest Editor
The Rev. Wm. Thomas Morgan

O Merciful God, Who art leading us during this season to examine ourselves, teach us to discipline ourselves in Thy Presence, that we shall neither think too meanly of ourselves or too lightly of our sins and faults. It is not Thy will for us that we should be merely agitated in Thy Presence or afraid. It is not Thy will that we should stir up the dead past, which was slain within us by Thy blessed forgiveness. We thank Thee for the mercy of oblivion. It is Thy will that we should recover ourselves in Thy love from all slackness and half-heartedness; that we should take ourselves more sternly on secret matters, which we may be aware of; that we may be delivered from fear and pride and all with purpose that we may become clean channels for such grace and spirit as Thou mayest bestow upon us. So that we may become channels of blessing for the Master's use. This we ask in Thy Name's sake. Amen.

Inaugurate Speech Clinic At The Sorosis Meetings

LANGHORNE, Mar. 6.—Although attendance was small due to weather conditions, members of Langhorne Sorosis inaugurated a speech clinic at Thursday's session in the local library.

Mrs. Horace Townsend is serving as leader of this clinic, which will continue for several meetings. Yesterday about 12 members participated. The leader had assigned subjects for members to present, then constructive criticism was forthcoming as part of the training course for the group.

Mrs. Henry Ridge was the presiding officer during business. Announcement was made of the March 18th meeting, when the general subject will be "Youth Conservation." A forum on "Education" is scheduled for the evening of March 24th in St. James' parish house, this being open to the public; and on April 1st a guest speaker will present a cancer prevention program.

O Merciful God, Who art leading us during this season to examine ourselves, teach us to discipline ourselves in Thy Presence, that we shall neither think too meanly of ourselves or too lightly of our sins and faults. It is not Thy will for us that we should be merely agitated in Thy Presence or afraid. It is not Thy will that we should stir up the dead past, which was slain within us by Thy blessed forgiveness. We thank Thee for that we may become channels of blessing for the Master's use. This we ask in Thy Name's sake. Amen.

BRISTOL PEOPLE:
LEON PLAVIN WILL MAKE TWO IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS REGARDING TELEVISION IN MONDAY'S COURIER. WATCH FOR FULL DETAILS.

Easy on the eyes - and ears

Standing still, it has the eager look of a pointer scenting game, so swift and flowing are its lines.

Sweeping by, it stands out unflinching from the highway crowd, unmistakably a Buick and unquestionably the year's trimmest fashion plate.

But have you traveled in one of these tidy new beauties?

Have you seen for yourself how smooth and silent is its flow of power, how hushed and quiet is its ride?

This comes from many things.

From Fireball power now Hi-Poised for throbless smoothness. From a Vibra-Shielded ride that is your ever-present protection against road-noise, body-drum and vibration build-up.

And it comes, in addition, from a brand-new development we call Sound-Sorber top lining.

It's a thick pad of feathery insulation much like that you use in your own home, and it goes into every closed model in our 1948 SUPER and ROADMASTER series.

This new lining cloaks your Buick in new and delightful silence akin to that of your own living room—silence that encourages normal-tone conversation, makes soft radio music clear and enjoyable throughout the whole car.

So you ride in quiet as well as beauty when you travel in this style star.

You find it a great-hearted lovely that is soft of voice and gentle of manner—a delight to the traveling ear, the guiding hand and the passing eye.

Don't just see it at your Buick dealer's—look into it with greatest care. The deeper you look the surer you'll be to see the wisdom of getting a firm order in now!

You shall have music—wherever you ride
Front seat or back, you listen to your radio at soft and undistorted volume in this new Buick. You talk without shouting, know freedom from rumble and din. Always cars of quiet comfort, the Buick SUPER and ROADMASTER step out still further with Sound-Sorber top lining—a Buick exclusive.

Easy on the eyes - and ears

Standing still, it has the eager look of a pointer scenting game, so swift and flowing are its lines.

Sweeping by, it stands out unflinching from the highway crowd, unmistakably a Buick and unquestionably the year's trimmest fashion plate.

But have you traveled in one of these tidy new beauties?

Have you seen for yourself how smooth and silent is its flow of power, how hushed and quiet is its ride?

This comes from many things.

From Fireball power now Hi-Poised for throbless smoothness. From a Vibra-Shielded ride that is your ever-present protection against road-noise, body-drum and vibration build-up.

And it comes, in addition, from a brand-new development we call Sound-Sorber top lining.

It's a thick pad of feathery insulation much like that you use in your own home, and it goes into every closed model in our 1948 SUPER and ROADMASTER series.

This new lining cloaks your Buick in new and delightful silence akin to that of your own living room -

silence that encourages normal-tone conversation, makes soft radio music clear and enjoyable throughout the whole car.

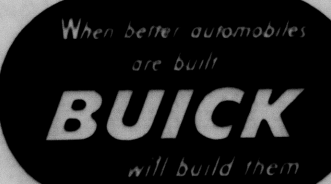

So you ride in quiet as well as beauty when you travel in this style star.

You find it a great-hearted lovely that is soft of voice and gentle of manner - a delight to the traveling car, the guiding hand and the passing eye.

Don't just see it at your Buick dealer's - look into it with greatest care. The deeper you look the surer you'll be to see the wisdom of getting a firm order in now!

You shall have music - wherever you ride

Front seat or back, you listen to your radio at soft and undistorted volume in this new Buick. You talk without shouting, know freedom from rumble and din. Always cars of quiet comfort, the Buick SUPER and ROADMASTER step out still further with Sound-Sorber top lining - a Buick exclusive.
